

Attractive

(adj.) pleasing to the eye, mind, or senses; having the power to draw attention

(Most people notice someone with ant _____ smile.)

Synonyms: appealing, likable, charming, beautiful, inviting

Antonyms: unappealing, unpleasant, disagreeable, offensive

Burden

(n.) something that is carried, a load; something that is very hard to bear

(It is a _____ to keep a secret.)

(v.) to weigh down or put too heavy a load on

(I am sorry to _____ you with all of these heavy packages.)

Synonyms: (n.) a weight, baggage; a difficulty, hardship, worry; (v.) to afflict, oppress

Antonyms: (n.) a relief; (v.) to relieve, lighten

Consent

(v.) to agree to or approve; to give permission

(My parents would not _____ to my staying up late.)

(n.) approval or permission

(The teacher needs out parents' _____ so that we can go on the class trip.)

Synonyms: (v.) to allow, permit, accept; (n.) agreement, authorization

Antonyms: (v.) to disapprove, refuse, deny, disallow; (n.) refusal, denial

Dependable

(adj.) capable of being relied on; trustworthy

(A taxi driver needs a _____ car that always starts, event in bad weather.)

Synonyms: reliable; responsible

Antonyms: unreliable, undependable, untrustworthy

Indicate

(v.) to point to or point out; to be a sign of; to state or express briefly

(The nurse told me that a skin rash may _____ an allergy or an insect bite.)

Synonyms: to mark, show, signify, suggest; announce

Antonyms: to conceal

Previous

(adj.) coming before in time or order
(Our teacher asked us to please turn back to the _____ page.)
Synonyms: earlier, preceding, prior, past
Antonyms: following, later, succeeding

Qualify

(v.) to be or become fit for something; to limit or narrow the meaning of (You must be eighteen years old to _____ to vote in a national election.)
Synonyms: to authorize, entitle, prepare, suit; to modify

Response

(n.) a reply or answer; a reaction to something
(I am still waiting for a _____ to my letter.)
Synonyms: an acknowledgment

Shabby

(adj.)worn or faded from use or wear; dressed in worn-out clothes; not fair or generous
(The child shivered in the g old coat.)
Synonyms: ragged, run-down; mean, wretched; unkind
Antonyms: elegant, grand; lavish; generous, kind

Thaw

(v.) to melt or cause to melt; to warm up gradually
(Let the turkey _____ in the refrigerator before you cook it.)
(n.) a period of weather warm enough to melt ice and snow
(We had an early _____ in January.)
Synonyms: (v.) to liquefy
Antonyms: (v.) to freeze, solidify

Urgent

(adj.) needing or demanding immediate action or attention
(The fire department answered an _____ call for help.)

Synonyms: critical, pressing

Antonyms: unimportant , minor

Vanity

(n.) the quality of being stuck-up or vain; having too much pride in one's looks or abilities; a dressing table

(A person's display of _____ can be very annoying.)

Synonyms: conceit, arrogance

Antonyms: modesty, humility
